

Back to Business | Disaster Preparedness for Your Organization

Thursday, October 29, 2015
9:00 am—2:30 pm
Olbrich Botanical Gardens
(Evjue Commons)
3330 Atwood Avenue, Madison

Natural disasters and manmade catastrophes can bring day-to-day activities to a screeching halt. According to the Federal Emergency Management Agency, 40% of businesses impacted by a disaster never reopen. This workshop will help small-medium sized businesses, non-profit organizations and government offices to think about business continuity and disaster preparedness plans. This workshop will provide simple tools to make your business ready and resilient in the face of disaster.

This workshop is FREE and open to businesses, non-profit organizations and government entities in Dane County (or neighboring counties). A complimentary lunch will be provided to all attendees.

If you have any questions about the event, send an email to Jennifer Laack
WEMPPP@wisconsin.gov or call at (608) 242-3238

To register for this complimentary workshop:

email WEMPPP@wisconsin.gov and include the following information:

Attendee name(s)
Organization name
Contact Phone Number
Contact E-mail

Register Soon! Attendance is capped at 65 seats!

This workshop is hosted by Dane County Emergency Management and Wisconsin Emergency Management with support from the Department of Homeland Security.

